

Present Perfect with 'just / already /yet'

Find the correct answer to the question and write the respective number in the box.

Can I borrow your car this evening?	Did you go to that new café?	1 He hasn't called her yet. 2 I haven't found a job yet.
Shall we make something for dinner?	Let's go for a walk.	3 The film's just started. 4 No, I've just taken it to the garage.
Let's celebrate tonight!	You're late.	5 I haven't finished my homework yet. 6 No, I haven't started cooking yet.
Franco and Maria are planning their wedding.	He's very sad today.	7 The manager hasn't got here yet. 8 He's already finished writing the report.
I really want a new car.	You're early.	9 No, I've already cooked it. 10 No, I haven't been there yet.
He's very quick.	We haven't got any money.	11 She's already bought her dress. 12 All my friends have already got one.
Are we going to eat soon?	She's waiting for a phone call.	13 It's just stopped raining. 14 His cat has just died.
I can't come out tonight.	You don't need to email the bank.	15 I've just passed my final exam! 16 I've just done it.