

GRAMMAR

1. Choose the correct word.

- 1) The film is very interesting/interested.
- 2) She is very interesting/interested in table tennis.
- 3) The show was amusing/amused and we didn't want to leave.
- 4) The audience was amusing/amused by the speaker's intelligence.
- 5) The suburbs of the city are extremely frightening/frightened.
- 6) Our parents were frightening/frightened when we returned home too late.
- 7) I found the book rather educative/educated.
- 8) She has never met such an educative/educated person.
- 9) It was rather surprising/surprised how a man could walk along the rope.
- 10) The people were surprising/surprised by his silly behaviour.

2. Make one sentence combining the given ones. Use Past Perfect. Make the necessary changes.

- 1) I was tired. I played basketball.

- 2) She finished writing letters. Her mother arrived.

- 3) The child cut his finger. We could take the knife from him.

- 4) The rain stopped. We moved home.

- 5) He decided to study French. He left school.

- 6) Sam worked hard. He could get success.

- 7) The house was built. The tornado ruined it.

- 8) My brother received an e-mail. He wrote back.

- 9) I bought a new dog. My old dog died.

- 10) They took up playing tennis. They saw the tennis tournament on TV.

3.1 Report the sentences.

- 1) "I went to the cinema yesterday," he said to me.

- 2) "She is coming to see us tonight," they said to us.

- 3) "I'll buy you a new magazine," mother said to me.

- 4) "She's played the violin once," Jack said to him.

- 5) "There are many icicles in the cave," the instructor said to the campers.

3.2

- 1) "Can she go out with us?" he asked.

- 2) "Are they going to visit us on Sunday?" asked granny.

- 3) "When did they go travelling?" asked mum.

- 4) "Has she taken photos this summer?" asked Jane.

- 5) "Will the weather be fine tomorrow?" asked dad.

- 6) "How much did the CD cost?" asked my friend.

- 7) "Where are they going tomorrow?" asked the guide.

- 8) "How did you get home so late?" asked my brother.

- 9) "Why are you going to stay at home?" asked my sister.

- 10) "Where is the Opera House?" asked the stranger.

3.3

- 1) "Don't stay there too late," said mother.

- 2) "Show me the bus stop," he said to us.

- 3) "Follow the instructor," said the guide.

- 4) "Come home on time," said father.

- 5) "Don't play music that loud at night," said the police officer.
